WASHOE COUNTY BRAND AND SOCIAL MEDIA POLICIES

Washoe County has established a trusted brand identity that exemplifies its mission to enhance the abundant quality of life in Northern Nevada through quality public service, effective communication, and integrity. This brand is reinforced by its innumerable touch-points with the community, from website to signage to interactions with employees.

The purpose of these policies is to establish certain standards of communications and controls on services throughout Washoe County. These policies will provide a framework for any and every department within the county to understand how to best communicate with our residents to protect the brand and mitigate inadvertent liability issues.

Washoe County Brand Guidelines were developed with one goal in mind: to create a shared brand identity that reflects the level of excellence and integrity that's embodied in all of our Washoe County services and communication.

Every employee at Washoe County is a brand ambassador. The Washoe County brand is not just our logo, signage, or website. Every action – whether visual, written or spoken – is a form of branding. This policy reflects Washoe County's visual branding guidelines and standards. Understanding of, and compliance with, our county branding standards will ensure that all of our staff are working together to enhance the reputation of Washoe County.

USING THE BRAND: Our Washoe County's Style Guide and Standards is a document that provides guidance in designing internal and external documents. Materials produced for external audiences that should be branded include (but are not limited to) the following: Marketing and outreach materials, agendas, banners, brochures, business cards, direct mail, email signatures, envelopes, flyers, letterhead, nametags, newsletters, online platforms, policies and guidelines, posters, presentations (Power Point), public exhibits (such as recruitment and health fairs), reports, signage (to include temporary and permanent internal, external indoor/outdoor signage) social media, tablecloths, webpages.

Communications such as public facing printed documents (annual reports, brochures, billboards or print ads) should include a date to reflect the time the document was approved.

Those same high-level communications will need additional approval from the Department Head, County Manager and/or the Communications Director. Internally used routine items such as agendas, meeting notes or more casual presentations commonly do not need further review and approval before distribution. If you have questions, please check with your supervisor or the Communications Division for clarification.

Examples of departmental logo use and specifications can be found on the Washoe County intranet – Inside Washoe. If an appropriate logo for a document is not found in these resources, please contact the Digital Communications Supervisor to determine if a customized logo may be appropriate.

THE WASHOE COUNTY LOGO: Washoe County's identity must be presented in a professional and unified way on all departmental publications to staff, stakeholders, and the public. Materials branded with our logo will be viewed as trustworthy and representative of Washoe County's mission.  EN a staff member creates a document, sends an email, or publishes a message, there is an opportunity to include and promote our logo—our identity/brand. The Washoe County logo should be displayed prominently on the front cover of all printed material and on the face of all documents produced by Washoe County.

Departments directed by elected officials are authorized to use their own logos, though are encouraged to incorporate the Washoe County logo within their departmental brand or as a separate companion logo in all public facing materials whenever possible to encourage continuity in image and public understanding.

Protected area of the logo: The protected area of the Washoe County logo is 1/8" around all sides of the logo. Surrounding elements must never be placed less than this distance. This rule applies to both rectangular and square logos.

Correct use of Logo: The Washoe County logo can be produced in blue, white or black. In some cases, authorized grey and gold may be used – though will need to be pre-approved through the Communications Division.

Either the square or rectangular logos featured in the Washoe County's Style Guide and Standards are acceptable for use. The logo is available in different file formats with varying image resolution. Image resolution

Approved vendors can request high resolution logo files from the Communications Division. If you are currently working with an approved vendor, please have your vendor contact the Communications Division to obtain those files.

Unpermitted use: Our Washoe County logo should never be altered in any way – not stretched, distorted, rearranged, skewed, tilted, or color changed from the color standards outlined in the Washoe County's Style Guide and Standards. Do not use another tagline, symbols or words with the Washoe County logo. The logo may be placed with other partner logos on signs and documents but should be proportional in size to the other logos. All components of the logo must be legible when used.

Continuity of Outreach: The Communications Division must be informed of all external communications and media engagements in order to properly support and ensure continuity of content, media strategy, distribution, consistency, timing, delivery method(s) and frequency of messaging. Employees who need assistance with information to the public should contact their Department Head or the Communications Division to go review the scope of the project. Important details that should be known at the time of engagement include the who (program and target audience), what (details of the event, program, initiative or issue), when (dates and when to release to the public) and why (the importance) of the messaging.

EN Communications Division has the discretion to choose distribution methods, which include press release, cmail, social media and other outlets. In order to have the most options to distribute, it is recommended that all press release requests are issued at least two weeks before the information needs to be sent. All crisis communications will be given top priority and may cause delay in sending out other messaging.

ADULT PATRON USE OF YOUTH AREAS POLICY

Washoe County Library promotes the safety and well being of the library-going children of the community and provides a welcoming atmosphere for our young patrons.

It should be noted that the youth areas do not provide a quiet room, so patrons who are seeking a quiet Library atmosphere in which to study will find it necessary to move to another area.

The youth areas have limited resources, including the number of staff available for assisting patrons and computer access. As a consequence, Washoe County Library System reserves the right to restrict adult patron use of these resources.

Adult patrons who are not in compliance with this policy may be requested to leave the youth areas.

We should probably revisit the social media policy. We had one years ago but it was rescinded some time before 2014 (not sure when, exactly, or why for that matter).

Sorry you're having to deal with this!

I'll read this more carefully from

Similar activity

I would also say that in comparison to his other videos we handled it well. It's mostly me talking about the program and then being blocked from this kids area.

For Sparks we will probably have a better strategy to just keep all these folks in the protest zone. They activity is not permissible in the library and they have demonstrated intent to obstruct the program.

I would leave it for now. Spamming is clearly not allowed.

He's obviously mad that no one cares about his video.

Thanks

I'm sorry to have created this fiasco by blocking. Apparently we need to have an official policy for patron behavior on social media? I found this:
<https://www.ala.org/advocacy/intfreedom/socialmediaguidelines#~text=Permanently%20blocking%20a%20patron%20from%20Freedom%20of%20Information%20Act%2C%20request%20st>.

Consequences

Libraries should clearly state the consequences for posts that do not meet the library's social media policy, which should be drafted in consultation with legal counsel. Best practices include developing a procedure through which libraries notify patrons of why they are being blocked, provide an appellate process within the library for the patron to challenge the removal, and determine an acceptable time period for the patron to proceed through a reinstatement procedure. Permanently blocking a patron from the social media site based on prior comments could be considered a prior restraint in violation of the First Amendment. The social media content of a public library or publicly funded academic library can be subject to an open records, or Freedom of Information Act, request. All user's posts that are removed for any reason whatsoever should be securely retained in accordance with your organization's retention schedule. The policy for how long a library retains these social media posts should be clearly stated in its social media policy and reviewed by legal counsel. Library administrators should clearly communicate their social media policies and legal obligations to their vendors.

I did block him for spamming. He has got some other account (Audit Reno) to spam instead and they have been reposting the YouTube video on every post.

I can unblock him if that's better. But I think it's a weird request to know who we have blocked. Are we allowed to give him names of people we have blocked since the beginning of having our social media accounts? Don't even know how we find that info—especially historically if it still exists. There aren't many, but that seems like a privacy thing. Is it a first amendment violation to block people on social media? If so, I will unblock.

Not sure about this one. Can we get this info?

Definitely justified for spam and hate speech. The person requesting has likely been blocked for spamming all of our socials with the YouTube video.

Thanks
